

LOURDES' STORY

Once upon a time a girl named rosana, who lived with his mother in Vilches, was going to spend the christmas holidays in Arquillos with her family. She was going with her mum in a very old car, it was not normal but different from the other cars. When they went across the bridge they found some dead people on the road and stopped. They got out of the car with the lights on and touched the bodies and turned into zombies. Zombies went to the door of the church and bit people there and they turned into zombies too. 🎃
