

THE GHOST OF ARQUILLOS

Once upon a time a girl named Ana who was 10 years old lived in a town of Jaén called Arquillos. Halloween was approaching and as every year she disguised with friends to ask for trick or treat from house to house. The legend tells that every November 31st, in Arquillos, in the Clock Tower, a village square, a woman without arms through all the streets of the town in search of children. Ana never wanted to listen to the story but his brother Raúl told it to her and she listened carefully. The night of the 31st came and she went with her friend Ana trick or treat. That night she saw the woman running after the children but in Arquillos nobody believed it.

Pilar Hervas.

2º ESO A