

RUBEN'S STORY

Once upon a time, in the night of Halloween, a group of boys met in the "Torre del reloj" to go to the cemetery. There, they hear a voice that says something. The boys ran to the "Posada". There they stopped and says that is a person.

The next morning the boys says what happened the last night and his parents called to the police. The police went to the cemetery but they didn't see anything. The boys met the next night and they hear the same voice. They walk search the thing or the person that produced the sound. They found a person that is sleeping in the cemetery!
